Hallmarks of the Holland America Line experience

What is it that sets the Holland America Line experience apart? It begins with the feeling of spaciousness and elegance you'll experience throughout our ships.

In public rooms rich, polished woods and comfortable furnishings create an inviting atmosphere in which to gather. Lavish, fresh floral arrangements along with museum-quality paintings and antiques set a luxurious tone. And everywhere you look you'll sense a meticulous attention to detail that underscores the pride we take in our seafaring heritage.

From the moment you arrive you are welcomed as an honored friend would be at a fine private home. Discreet and gracious personal service is, for many, the ultimate luxury, and our crew is the reason so many return to cruise with us time and again.
